

Published on <http://awards.cies.org/> .. (<https://awards.cies.org>)

Home > NATO Security Studies

NATO Security Studies

Award Autogenerated Code

10011-BE

Region

Europe and Eurasia

Country

Belgium

Number of Grants

1

Stipend

$5,566 per month.

Note: Scholars will be paid in euros and the amount may fluctuate a bit due to the exchange rate.

Estimated Travel and Relocation Allowance

One-time travel allowance of $1,113 (for grantee only).

Note: Scholars will be paid in euros and the amount may fluctuate a bit due to the exchange rate.

Candidate Profile

Academics, all levels including early career

Activity

Research

Teaching/Research

Application Deadline

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Grant Activity

The successful candidate will spend one semester researching or researching/teaching on transatlantic security studies at a European university or think tank; popular options for applicants include the College of Europe (Bruges, Belgium) and the Brussels office of the German Marshall Fund (GMF). This unique award allows U.S. candidates to delve deeper into NATO security interests while experiencing the subject matter firsthand through living and working in another cultural community.

Grant Length

Five months

Grant Dates

Grants are tenable during fall semester 2021 or spring semester 2022.

Flex Option

No

Discipline Type

Only applications in the following disciplines will be considered

Disciplines

Area Studies, non- U.S.

History, non- U.S.

Political Science

Areas of Interest

international relations, international security studies, transatlantic studies, NATO security studies

Degree Requirements

Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) required

Additional Qualification Information

Successful applicants must have lecturing experience in transatlantic security studies.

Additional Language Requirement

Teaching will be conducted in English; preference may be given to candidates with knowledge of French.

Invitation Requirement

A letter of invitation is preferred

Helpful Links

- College of Europe, Bruges ^[1]
- German Marshall Fund ^[2]

Multi-Country/Area Award

No

Grant Length Filter

Three to five months

Award Code

11014-BE

AddThis

Award Year

2021-2022 Awards ^[3]

Special Award Benefits

All grantees in Belgium and Luxembourg receive support from the Fulbright Commission in Brussels. They are included in cultural programming throughout their grant, including activities with the FAAB (Fulbright Alumni Association Belgium), workshops with other grantees, and receptions at the local U.S. Embassy. Grantees may also participate in the Fulbright Inter-country Lecturer Program within Europe during their stay in Belgium.

Language Proficiency Requirements

None, English is sufficient

Source URL: <https://awards.cies.org/content/nato-security-studies-2>

Links

[1] <http://www.coleurope.eu/>

[2] <http://www.gmfus.org/>

[3] <https://awards.cies.org/award-years/2021-2022-awards>