Additional Comments
A new Industrial Property Law scheduled for consideration by the National Assembly in March 2018 is expected to overhaul IPR in Mauritius, bringing it in line with international standards by, inter alia, committing to Madrid Protocol and Hague Convention standards. The Economic Section of the U.S. Embassy in Mauritius is working closely with the Government of Mauritius on IPR, having co-sponsored conferences and brought in Fulbright experts to advise the government and leading academic institutions on making Mauritius a hub for innovation.
