Discipline Type
Only applications in the following disciplines will be considered

Disciplines
Business
Economics
Education
Public Administration
Sociology
Tourism
Urban Planning

Areas of Interest
Applications are especially encouraged in the fields of education and teacher education, multicultural and diversity studies, social sciences, public administration and urban planning.

Special Features
The host university may provide housing for teaching grantees. This is however discussed on individual basis.

Degree Requirements
Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) required

Additional Qualification Information
Scholars with a Ph.D. and the rank of associate or full professor (or the equivalent professional rank and experience) are preferred. For academics or professionals where proposals include teaching, at least five years of postdoctoral college or university teaching experience is expected. Research proposals can include early career applicants.

Additional Language Requirement
All teaching will be in English; proficiency in another language is not required.

Invitation Requirement
A letter of invitation is required

Additional Comments
Applications can propose sharing between institutions in the same geographic area; these applications must include one or more letters of invitation confirming the willingness of the relevant parties to share the scholar. If one letter, it must indicate that the potential host has communicated with the other institution(s) and all are in agreement to share. Placing U.S. Fulbright scholars at a range of South African universities is a priority. Applications at historically disadvantaged South African educational institutions will be given priority. Please note that more applications are generally received from scholars proposing to work in the Western Cape than can be funded. Please contact the U.S. Embassy or CIES staff about university contacts in other regions.
