Fulbright East Asia Pacific Regional Travel Program

Fulbright Scholars in the East Asia and Pacific (EAP) region have the opportunity to apply for funds to support short-term (3-14 days) travel to other countries in the EAP region for activities such as lectures, workshops, graduate or faculty seminars, master classes or recitals, curricular advising or panel presentations. EAP Regional Travel Program funding covers transportation only. Regional Travel Program activities/host sites should not be included in the initial Fulbright application. Scholars may pursue invitations for short-term activities in other EAP countries once notified that they have been selected for a Fulbright grant, and may only apply for travel program funds once they have actively started their Fulbright grant in their host country. Scholars on Flex grants are not eligible for the regional travel grant.

Degree Requirements
Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) not required

Additional Qualification Information
Professionals and academics must have a minimum of three years of university teaching experience. Teaching assistant work does not qualify.

Additional Language Requirement

All teaching will be in English; additional language proficiency is not required.

Invitation Requirement

A letter of invitation should not be sought

Additional Comments

Chinese host institutions in most cases provide on-campus housing for recipients of teaching grants. In keeping with the Fulbright objective of maximizing interaction with Chinese students and faculty, grantees are expected to live in the campus-provided housing.
