Application Deadline

Tuesday, September 15, 2020

Grant Activity

The grant supports independent or collaborative research at Brazilian universities, research institutes and, in special cases, NGOs. The strategic goal of the U.S. Fulbright Scholar Program in Brazil is to support the internationalization process of the Brazilian higher education system. In this way, it is expected that scholars work not only on their individual research projects, but also develop activities that foster the mobility of students and peers, and other collaborative initiatives. Candidates with no or little academic experience in Brazil are encouraged to apply.

Grant Length

Three to four months

Grant Dates

Grants must be completed between July 1, 2021 and September 30, 2022.

Locations

Projects are encouraged in all parts of Brazil, specifically beyond the urban areas of Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo.

Flex Option

Yes

Flex Description

Flex grants, which allow the grant to be split into two two-month in-country visits between July 1, 2021 and September 30, 2022, will be considered. There must be a period of no less than two months between the two in-country stays.

Discipline Type

Applications are sought in all disciplines

Degree Requirements

Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) required

Additional Qualification Information

This opportunity is open to candidates with no less than five years after having obtained their Ph.D. or other terminal degree. Candidates with no or little academic experience in Brazil who hold a position of assistant, associate or full professor are encouraged to apply.

Invitation Requirement

A letter of invitation is required

Additional Comments

Candidates must have an affiliation with an accredited academic institution or research institute. Affiliations with non-profit organizations, archives, governmental agencies, etc., are acceptable and may be desirable depending on the nature of the project.

Candidates are encouraged to contact the potential host institution to discuss research interests and project feasibility. If you need assistance to facilitate the initial contact, you can reach out to the Fulbright Commission [1] in Brazil.

Projects involving field research among indigenous populations or in nature reserves must have authorization from the Brazilian government. Please contact your host for information on potential research clearance well ahead of time and allow at least 10 months for the entire process.

This award is funded by CAPES [2], the Brazilian Federal Agency for Support and Evaluation of Graduate Education.
