Stipend

Monthly base stipend of $4,250 for faculty at the associate professor, professor rank or the professional equivalent, and $4,050 for faculty at or below the assistant professor rank and professional equivalents. Monthly maintenance allowance of $500 payable in Egyptian Pounds (EGP). The monthly maintenance allowance increases by $100 (payable in EGP) per dependent, for a maximum of two accompanying dependents who spend at least 80 percent of the grant period with the grantee in Egypt. Fulbright U.S. Scholars do not need to use their stipend to cover housing, as this is covered separately as a special award benefit (See Special Award Benefits). Therefore, the allowance package offered by the Binational Fulbright Commission in Egypt is considerably higher than the cost of living in Egypt.

Estimated Travel and Relocation Allowance

International travel and relocation allowance for grantee is provided; plus, international travel allowance is provided for one accompanying dependent.

Dependent Tuition Allowance

A maximum of $10,000 per child or $20,000 per family, or its equivalent in EGP, for qualifying dependent children in grades K-12 is reimbursed, against receipts, for a full academic year. Amount is prorated for shorter grant periods.

Special Features
During their grant period, Fulbright U.S. Scholars in the Middle East and North Africa region may apply for a short-term regional travel grant (five to 14 days) for participation in a variety of activities including faculty and student lectures, graduate or faculty seminars, curriculum development, public lectures, panel presentations, needs assessment, conferences, or some combination thereof.

Degree Requirements
Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) required

Additional Qualification Information
A Ph.D. and evidence of scholarly research in the proposed project's field of specialization are required for research grants. A Ph.D. and higher education teaching experience is required for teaching grants.

Additional Language Requirement
All teaching will be in English; additional language proficiency is not required for teaching grants. For projects that include a research component (research or teaching/research grants), proficiency in Arabic is generally not required for scholars affiliated with AUC; however, the scholar should clarify the feasibility of conducting the research in English. An Arabic language proficiency report is only required if the project will include library research in Arabic.

Invitation Requirement
A letter of invitation is preferred

Additional Comments
Final awards for 2021-2022 are contingent upon medical clearance, clearance by the Government of Egypt, the availability of funds, and the security situation in country.
