Stipend
Direct grant benefits (stipend, travel and relocation allowances) are provided by the host institution, the Universidad de Murcia (UM).

€3,000 (approximately $3,270 per month). This amount covers the monthly stipend, housing and living allowances. Scholars accompanied by dependents for at least 80 percent of the grant period will receive a monthly dependent allowance of €150 (approximately $165) for one dependent or €300 (approximately $330) for two or more dependents.

Estimated Travel and Relocation Allowance

Travel and relocation allowance for scholars: €1285 (approximately $1400). Authorized dependents’ travel allowance: €735 (approximately $800 per person for up to two dependents).

Dependent Tuition Allowance

No tuition allowance will be provided. Both public and private schools in Spain have bilingual or English language instruction available. The UM offers logistical assistance in finding housing and school(s) for dependent children, if necessary.

Grant Activity

Please note that, although part of the information on the host institution website is in Spanish, most faculty in the Master in Business Administration (MBA) degree program speak English, and the scholar will be expected to teach only in English. Detailed information about his/her tasks will be provided to candidates in a timely manner after being selected.

A) Teaching at the postgraduate level:

The candidate is expected to teach or co-teach some of the courses in the Master in Business Administration (MBA) degree program. The courses in which the candidate will participate will be chosen according to his/her interest and previous experience.

The visiting professor will teach a maximum of two courses, with around 20 students and 5-7 weeks in duration, including lectures and seminars.

B) Research:

The candidate is expected to collaborate with our research groups on Business and Innovation topics according to his/her interests and profile. This collaboration includes, but is not limited to, meetings, research paper proposals, doctorate seminars, and participation in research projects. The list of research groups can be found at this website. [1]

The Organizational Technological Innovation research group has a special focus on business and innovation. For more information, please see their website [2].
