Special Features

Fulbright East Asia Pacific Regional Travel Program

Fulbright Scholars in the East Asia and Pacific (EAP) region have the opportunity to apply for funds to support short-term (3-14 days) travel to other countries in the EAP region for activities such as lectures, workshops, graduate or faculty seminars, master classes or recitals, curricular advising or panel presentations. EAP Regional Travel Program funding covers transportation only. Regional Travel Program activities/host sites should not be included in the initial Fulbright application. Scholars may pursue invitations for short-term activities in other EAP countries once notified that they have been selected for a Fulbright grant, and may only apply for travel program funds once they have actively started their Fulbright grant in their host country. Scholars on Flex grants are not eligible for the regional travel grant.

Degree Requirements
Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) not required

Additional Qualification Information

Both academic and professional applicants for teaching grants must have at least three years of teaching experience at a university, college or community college at the time of application. Teaching assistantships do not count toward this three-year requirement. Non-academic professionals must have attained at least five years of an extensive record of scholarly or professional publications.

Additional Language Requirement

All teaching will be in English. Research can be conducted in English; proficiency in Tagalog or other local language can be helpful but is not required.

Invitation Requirement
A letter of invitation is preferred

Additional Comments

Selected applicants should initiate and coordinate with proposed Philippine institutions and their faculty about possible local housing options.
