Award Activity

This group seminar is designed to familiarize U.S. higher education administrators from universities, colleges and community colleges in the U.S. with the latest trends in Germany's higher education system. Through lectures, workshops and campus visits in Berlin and other regions of Germany, participants will explore the manifold opportunities for academic exchanges in Germany and the challenges to be overcome in times of crisis. Participants will also learn about higher education mobility trends in the broader European context.

During their stay in Berlin, participants are provided with a comprehensive overview of Germany and its higher education system through presentations, discussions with experts, and campus visits. Participants will also travel to other destinations throughout Germany to visit further institutions of (higher) education such as research universities and universities of applied sciences. Beyond the German perspective, the seminar also offers the opportunity to explore and discuss the German higher education system within the European Union.

Additional Qualification Information

Applicants must meet the following qualification:
Full-time administrators who at the time of their application and intended program participation are affiliated with a U.S. based campus of a U.S. university, college, community college or nonprofit international educational exchange organization. In addition, applicants should also meet the following requirements and explain, especially in their CV and project statement, why they think they meet the requirements profile.

Applicants should have significant involvement with one of the following areas:

1. International exchanges: student or faculty exchanges, foreign student admissions and advising, study abroad programs and international education exchange services. Administrators who have substantial responsibility for enhancing the international dimension of their institutions and for international program development are also encouraged to apply
2. Career Services
3. Alumni Affairs
4. Development and Fundraising

Applicants are given preference who:

- have at least three years of experience in administrative work and supervisory responsibility in any of the above-named areas and who have been employed in such a position at the current institution for at least one year;
- have not had the opportunity for longer professional visits in Germany in the last ten years.

Applicants with German-American dual citizenship are not eligible for this program.

Invitation Requirement
A letter of invitation should not be sought.

Additional Comments

Participants will be asked to submit a report and an evaluation form at the conclusion of the seminar.

The Fulbright Program is a prestigious academic exchange program. It is designed to expand and strengthen relationships between the people of the United States and citizens of other nations and to promote international understanding and cooperation. In this spirit, the U.S.-Germany International Education Administrators Program offers the participants an intensive professional exposure which opens new perspectives on international academic mobility and exchange. Accompaniment by family members during the program is therefore not possible. Participants may arrange their air travel to allow for independent travel in Germany/Europe before or after the seminar.
