Stipend

- Teaching or Teaching/Research: $2,750-$3,000 per month, depending on academic rank.
- Research: $2,350 per month.

In addition to the stipend listed above, Fulbright U.S. Scholars will receive a Monthly Maintenance Allowance (MMA). The monthly maintenance allowance, which includes housing and associated living costs, is between $2,000-$2,700 per month, or the equivalent in Jordanian dinars. The allowance is based on the number of dependents who accompany and reside with the grantee for at least 80% of the grant period. Apartment monthly rents, including utilities, generally cost between $1,000-$1,500.

Estimated Travel and Relocation Allowance

Relocation/Settling-In Allowance: Grantees will receive a one-time payment of $4,560 for round-trip airfare, excess baggage, visa fees, in-transit costs, temporary hotel costs, mailing of teaching materials, local transportation in the U.S. or Jordan, and other miscellaneous costs associated with relocation from the U.S. to Jordan and within Jordan. An additional allowance of $1,000 is for U.S. scholars with grants of six to 10 months to cover the costs of health clearance tests, residency and/or work permit fees.

Dependent Travel Allowance: A one-time dependent travel allowance of $2,500 is also provided for grantees with accompanying dependent(s) who remain with the grantee for at least 80% of the grant period.

Estimated Book and Research Allowance

An allowance of $400 per month will be provided for full-time research awards only.

Dependent Tuition Allowance

Grantees with awards of four to five months in length will receive a one-time payment of $2,500 per qualifying dependent child, and awards of six to 10 months in length will receive a one-time payment of $5,000 per qualifying dependent child in grades 1-12.

Award Activity

Host institutions welcome scholars to teach undergraduate or graduate level courses, conduct research, or carry out a combination of teaching and research activities.

Researchers are encouraged to present occasional lectures at institutions throughout Jordan. Scholars on a teaching award will be expected to teach two to three classes per semester. Scholars on a teaching and research award will have a ratio of 60% teaching and 40% research.
In addition to being a prestigious academic exchange program, the Fulbright program is designed to strengthen relationships between the people of the United States and citizens of other nations. It also aims to promote international understanding and cooperation. To support this mission, Fulbright Scholars will be asked to give public talks, mentor students and otherwise engage with the host community, in addition to their primary activities.

More information about teaching and/or research proposals available here.

Award Length
Five to 10 months

Award Dates

The academic year in Jordan is September through June. Grants may begin any time after September 2022, but must be completed by August 30, 2023. No grant will begin during the Summer months (June - July - August). Grantees with September start dates are expected to arrive in Jordan for orientation, tentatively scheduled during the first week of September. Grantees with January start dates will receive an orientation program upon arrival.

Locations

Any appropriate Jordanian university. All host institution affiliations will be confirmed by the Jordanian-American Commission for Educational Exchange (JACCEE), also known as Fulbright Jordan. Accredited and registered host institutional affiliates outside of public or private Jordanian universities will be accepted on a case-by-case basis, subject to review by JACEE.

Flex Option

No

Discipline Type

Applications are sought in all disciplines

Special Features

During their grant period, Fulbright U.S. Scholars in the Middle East and North Africa region may apply for a short-term regional travel grant (seven to 14 days) for participation in a variety of activities including faculty and student lectures, graduate or faculty seminars, curriculum development, public lectures, panel presentations, needs assessment, conferences, or some combination thereof.

Degree Requirements

Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) required

Additional Qualification Information

Scholars (Teaching, Teaching/Research or Research) affiliated with Jordanian public universities must provide a scanned copy of their Ph.D. diploma or other terminal degree. In some instances, scanned copies of grantee’s Bachelor’s and Master’s diplomas may be requested. Preference will be given to candidates with at least three years of postdoctoral experience.

Additional Language Requirement

All teaching will be in English unless otherwise specified by the host institution. For research grants, Arabic language proficiency sufficient to complete the research project is required; applicants must complete the language proficiency evaluation. For applicants without Arabic or other applicable language proficiency, feasibility of conducting research in English must be demonstrated in the proposal.

Invitation Requirement

A letter of invitation is preferred.
