Fulbright Canada Awards for American Scholars

Award Length
Four to nine months. For Flex grants, see Flex Description.

Award Dates
Grants must begin in either September 2022 or January 2023 for one-semester grants; academic-year grants must begin in September 2022.
Please note that one semester grants are preferred.

For Flex grants, see Flex Description.

Locations
Affiliation can be with any university, government agency, or research institution in Canada.

Flex Option
Yes

Flex Description

The Flex Award is designed for scholars who require multiple visits to the host country. This option allows grants to be conducted over short segments, preferably during the fall and/or spring semesters. Interested applicants should clearly indicate plans for Flex in their project statement, including a project timeline. Flex grantees may be asked to give public talks, mentor students, and otherwise engage with the host country academic community.
Short-term Flex grants for teaching and research or research for two-month segments over two consecutive academic years are available during the fall and/or spring semesters with prior arrangement with the host institution. Final approval of Flex grants will be contingent upon available funding.

Discipline Type
Applications are sought in all disciplines

Areas of Interest
While the competition is open to all disciplines, Fulbright Canada is particularly interested in encouraging research on contemporary issues relevant to Canada, the United States, and the relationship between the two countries. Applicants should also emphasize the need to be in residence in Canada to carry out the project.

Degree Requirements
Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) required

Additional Qualification Information
Appropriately qualified professionals outside of academia who do not hold a terminal degree may also apply.

Additional Language Requirement
If proposing affiliation at a Francophone host institution, French language ability commensurate with the requirements of the project and the host institution is required.

Invitation Requirement
A letter of invitation is preferred.

Additional Comments
One-semester grants are preferred. Awards should fall within the academic year and are not available for the summer months only. Candidates may be considered for other Fulbright Canada award opportunities as appropriate.

Special Award Benefits
- Fall Orientation: The 2022-2023 cohort of U.S. Fulbright Students and Scholars to Canada are invited to a program of professional and personal development in Canada’s national capital, Ottawa, Ontario (in early September). Fulbright Canada covers local costs (accommodations, meals, activities). Up to C$1,000 is provided to reimburse travel expenses to the Fall Orientation in Ottawa, Ontario.
- Visiting Scholars Speakers Program: Up to C$1,000 for travel expenses to a different city or region of Canada can be granted on a competitive basis. Through this program, the scholar may present at professional conferences, offer formal presentations at other Canadian post-secondary institutions, and/or provide lectures or briefings to community groups. Preference is given to applications with a robust agenda.
- Fulbright Canada Eco-Leadership Program: Up to C$4,000 for community-based environmental initiatives can be granted on a competitive basis. The program provides small grants to help complete a volunteer-based project that will make a significant positive environmental impact in your community. This program is also available to alumni.

- Fulbright Canada Community Leadership Program: Granted on a competitive basis, up to C$8,000 to engage with local partners in any type of activity, event, or program that would have a beneficial impact on the community. This program encourages teams of grantees and alumni to undertake community-based volunteer initiatives. This program is also available to alumni.

- The Regional Travel Program: Fulbright U.S. Scholars in the Western Hemisphere (WHA) region may apply for a short-term regional travel grant for activities such as workshops, seminars, presentations, lectures, performances, exhibits, curricular advising, and similar projects, at institutions in eligible WHA countries (Argentina, Bahamas, Barbados and Eastern Caribbean, Belize, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Guyana, Haiti, Honduras, Jamaica, México, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Suriname, Trinidad & Tobago, and Uruguay). The Regional Travel Program covers travel to and from the destination; lodging may be offered by the hosting institution. Scholars may only apply for this grant once in country on their Fulbright grant. Scholars who apply for the Flex award are ineligible for the Regional Travel Program. Additional information can be found on the Regional Travel Program website.

Language Proficiency Requirements
None, English is sufficient. However, feasibility of conducting the project must be demonstrated in the project statement.
