Special Features

The UM sponsors this award and, in addition to financial benefits, offers advice to find housing and if necessary, a school for dependent children. A contact will be available to help the professor adapt to the university.

The scholar will enjoy all the benefits and rights of a regular faculty member of the UM, including access to all digital resources.

Degree Requirements
Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) required

Additional Qualification Information

Rank of Assistant, Associate or Full Professor with substantial teaching experience.

Please note that candidates with dual U.S./Spanish citizenship, or candidates who are residing in Spain at the time of application or anytime thereafter, are not eligible for the Fulbright program in Spain.

Additional Language Requirement

Classes will be taught in English, and the Lecturer may expect students to complete the written and oral assignments in that language.

Some proficiency in Spanish is recommended for a better interaction with students and for daily life. The city of Murcia, where the university is located, is in the southeast part of Spain. The number of foreign visitors is increasing each year but English is not widely spoken, especially among middle-aged and older people.

Invitation Requirement
A letter of invitation is preferred.
