Award Activity

The Fulbright University of Roehampton Award covers a three-to-nine month project for researching, lecturing or teaching in or across any research-active departments at the university.

Situated on a beautiful parkland campus in the heart of south-west London, the University of Roehampton ^[1] has a proud history stretching back 175 years through its four colleges. Roehampton has a diverse community of 10,000 students from more than 140 countries. The University offers a range of course choices across 10 different academic department and is highly regarded in the areas of Dance, Biological Anthropology, Drama and English Literature programmes.

The University of Roehampton focuses on creating new knowledge and ideas that help to understand our world and make it a better place; two-thirds of the university's research is officially recognised as of world-class standard. There are research-active staff engaged in teaching across all of the academic departments, which means students benefit from being taught by leading thinkers from their first year of study.

Roehampton has an international reputation for the quality of its teaching and research, offering students and visiting researchers the best of both worlds: a stunning green campus, with modern facilities, in one of the most vibrant cities in the world.

Special Award Benefits

Scholars are provided with a small travel allowance and accommodation to attend certain Fulbright Commission enrichment events. Scholars in the UK will have the opportunity to participate in a range of events, and benefit from a variety of additional opportunities provided by the Commission. A three-day Fulbright Orientation programme takes place in London in mid-September; a three-day Fulbright Forum highlights a specific place or region of the UK each January (this also serves as an orientation for scholars arriving in January); and a Fulbright Farewell Conference is planned around the end of June (this will be held in Scotland in 2022).

All Fulbright Scholar grantees must obtain a UK Tier 5 (Temporary Worker – Government Authorised Exchange) visa to participate in the Fulbright program in the UK. The Commission sponsors the Scholar's Tier 5 visa.

Scholars receive free institutional memberships with The National Trust/Royal Oak Foundation [9] and The Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures & Commerce \(RSA\) [10]. Scholars are also offered a free Elsevier scholar support package, which includes access to the entire suite of SciVerse products and a wide range of online journals (including The Lancet).

Scholars are asked to deliver a public lecture or other event at a location other than their host institution. They may also be offered the opportunity to deliver a Lecture at Gresham College [11] and Benjamin Franklin House [12] in London during their grant period in the UK.

Fulbright Scholars will have membership of the UK Fulbright Alumni Network and access to Fulbrighter, a networking platform which enables grantees to connect, network, engage and collaborate with Fulbright alumni and grantees around the world

Depending on the timing of the visit, scholars may also be able to attend the annual Fulbright EU-NATO Seminar held in Belgium and Luxembourg (in February) and the annual Fulbright Seminar in Berlin (in March).

During their grant period, Fulbright Scholars in Europe have the opportunity to apply for a travel grant to support short-term (up to one week) travel to other countries in the EUR region for activities such as lectures, workshops, graduate or faculty seminars, master classes or recitals, curricular advising or panel presentations. Though scholars may pursue invitations for short-term activities in other European countries once notified that they have been selected for a Fulbright grant, Scholars may only apply for the European inter-country travel grant funds when in the UK and during their Fulbright grant period.

Language Proficiency Requirements
