Flex Option
No

Discipline Type
Applications are sought in all disciplines

Special Features

South and Central Asia Fulbright Regional Travel Grant

During their grant period, Fulbright Scholars in the South and Central Asia (SCA) region may apply for a regional travel grant to engage in a variety of activities at academic institutions or non-profit organizations in eligible SCA countries (India, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyz Republic, Nepal, Republic of the Maldives, Sri Lanka, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan). Activities that U.S Scholars may engage in include: faculty and student lectures, graduate or faculty seminars, conferences, curriculum development, public lectures, panel presentations, needs assessment, or some combination thereof. Scholars in the arts may be invited to give master classes or recitals, participate in exhibitions or workshops, or consult with cultural institutions. Activities may not include research. This grant will cover travel to and from the destination and lodging may be offered by the hosting institution. Scholars may only apply for this grant once in-country on their Fulbright grant. As funds are limited, Scholars are limited to one such travel grant.

Before traveling to another country on a Regional Travel Grant, it is important to confirm trip details with the U.S. Embassy Public Affairs Section or Fulbright Commission in that country.

Please note: The 2022-23 Fulbright Regional Travel Program will be dependent on global travel conditions. More information will be provided prior to grant departure.

South and Central Asia Fulbright Midyear Conference

With funding provided by the United States Department of State’s Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, the U.S.-India Educational Foundation (the Fulbright Commission in India) invites eligible Fulbright Scholars in the South and Central Asia region to attend the annual South and Central Asia Fulbright Midyear Conference in India (usually held in February or March). The conference is an opportunity for current Fulbright U.S. Scholars who are on their Fulbright grants in the SCA region at the time of the conference to gather to discuss each other’s work and educational exchange issues and to invite suggestions for the future development and enhancement of the Fulbright Program. Financial assistance to attend the conference is provided as an additional Fulbright grant benefit.

Please note: The 2022-23 South and Central Asia Fulbright Midyear Conference will be dependent on global travel conditions. More information will be provided prior to grant departure.

Degree Requirements

Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) not required

Additional Qualification Information

Ph.D. or equivalent terminal degree preferred, and at least three years’ experience teaching in higher education. Professionals with an M.A. or M.S. are required to have at least seven years of relevant professional experience as well as a high level of academic or professional achievement.

Applicants without prior Pakistan experience are especially encouraged.

Applications are invited from all disciplines, except clinical medicine.

Additional Language Requirement

All teaching will be in English; additional language proficiency is not required.

For research, language fluency sufficient to complete the project is recommended.

Teaching/Research and Research applicants: if research will be conducted in a language other than English, the language proficiency self-evaluation within the application is required; the language proficiency report external evaluation is not required.
Invitation Requirement
A letter of invitation is optional.

Additional Comments

In the project statement, applicants should indicate if funding from the American Institute of Pakistan Studies, American Institute of Indian Studies, or other sources is expected to be received or has been received recently.

Applicants recommended for further consideration following the peer review stage[1] will be invited to telephone or Skype interviews with the Fulbright Commission in Pakistan (The U.S. Educational Foundation in Pakistan, USEFP[2]) staff in late Fall 2021.
