Areas of Interest
CY Initiative welcomes candidates in all fields.

CY Initiative aims to shed light on major contemporary societal issues. These major issues are approached in their global complexity, by favoring an interdisciplinary approach. Particular attention will be paid to projects that address societal challenges related to the fields of economics, finance, and management; heritage science (interdisciplinary approach to historic conservation and cultural heritage studies); art and luxury; risk management (mathematical, economic and financial... modelling); and society and security.

CY Initiative gathers 25 research centers and two national centers of excellence in Modeling Sciences [7] and Heritage Sciences. [8] For an overview of research and laboratories at CYU, see the following directories in English from member institutions:

Additional Comments

CY Initiative of Excellence brings together CY Cergy Paris Université and ESSEC Business School, to create one of the 17 French Universities of Excellence, selected by the French government.

CY Cergy Paris Université is a multidisciplinary teaching and research university located just outside of Paris, created in January 2020. It is the result of a merger of several French academic institutions: the University of Cergy-Pontoise, EISTI School of Engineering, Paris Seine University, and the close partnership of ESSEC Business School.

It has four graduate schools, focusing respectively on science and technology; arts and humanities; education; and law and political science. Scholars interested in business and management may also be associated with the ESSEC Business School, which offers graduate programs in those fields.

CY Cergy Paris Université’s research laboratories cover a wide range of fields, from bioengineering to information technology, education, law, mathematics, and finance.

In addition to being a prestigious academic exchange program, the Fulbright Program is designed to expand and strengthen relationships between the people of the United States and citizens of other nations and to promote international understanding and cooperation. To support this mission, Fulbright Scholars will be asked to give public talks, mentor students, and otherwise engage with the host community, in addition to their primary activities.
