Research

Teaching/Research

Application Deadline

Closed

Award Activity

The Fulbright University of Dundee Award covers a 3-to-6 month project for researching, lecturing or teaching in art and design across any research-active departments at the university.

The University of Dundee <sup>[1]</sup> was ranked Scottish University of the Year in 2016 and 2017.

Dundee is now a hub for the UK's digital entertainment industry, and the design for a new £45m Victoria and Albert Museum in the city by the award-winning Japanese architect Kengo Kuma reflects Dundee's 21st-century vision and creativity.

Dundee was awarded UNESCO City of Design <sup>[2]</sup> status in 2015. The prestigious title has seen Dundee join other UNESCO Cities of Design such as Montreal, Buenos Aires and Beijing, and has become the first and only UK city to receive the award.

Award Length

Three months to six months

Award Dates

Grants may begin any time after September 1, 2022 but before April 30, 2023.

Locations

University of Dundee <sup>[3]</sup>, Scotland

Invitation Requirement Additional Information

To request a letter of invitation for this award please contact the individual academic or department head most relevant to your project, or request this from Catherine Cavanagh, Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art & Design, University of Dundee, at c.cavanagh@dundee.ac.uk <sup>[6]</sup>.

While it is not a requirement to have an affiliation letter for this award it is strongly recommended that applicants get in touch with their proposed host department and applications that include an affiliation letter will be much more competitive. An email from the host institution confirming their interest in hosting the applicant will suffice as evidence of affiliation. If an applicant is struggling to make contact with their host institution they can contact the US-UK Fulbright Commission directly on fulbrightprogrammes@fulbright.org.uk <sup>[7]</sup>

Special Award Benefits

Scholars are provided with a small travel allowance and accommodation to attend certain Fulbright Commission enrichment events. Scholars in the UK will have the opportunity to participate in a range of events, and benefit from a variety of additional opportunities provided by the Commission. A three-day Fulbright Orientation programme takes place in London in mid-September; a three-day Fulbright Forum highlights a specific place or region of the UK each January (this also serves as an orientation for scholars arriving in January); and a Fulbright Farewell Conference is planned around the end of June (this will be held in Scotland in 2021).

All Fulbright Scholar grantees must obtain a UK Tier 5 (Temporary Worker – Government Authorised Exchange) visa to participate in the Fulbright program in the UK. The Commission sponsors the Scholar's Tier 5 visa.

Scholars receive free institutional memberships with The National Trust/Royal Oak Foundation <sup>[9]</sup> and The Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts, Manufactures & Commerce \(RSA\) <sup>[10]</sup>. Scholars are also offered a free Elsevier scholar support package, which includes access to the entire suite of SciVerse products and a wide range of online journals (including The Lancet).

Scholars are asked to deliver a public lecture or other event at a location other than their host institution. They may also be offered the opportunity to deliver a Lecture at Gresham College <sup>[11]</sup> and Benjamin Franklin House <sup>[12]</sup> in London during their grant period in the UK.

Fulbright Scholars will have membership of the UK Fulbright Alumni Network and access to Fulbrighter, a networking platform which enables grantees to connect, network, engage and collaborate with Fulbright alumni and grantees around the world

Depending on the timing of the visit, scholars may also be able to attend the annual Fulbright EU-NATO Seminar held in Belgium and Luxembourg (in February) and the annual Fulbright Seminar in Berlin (in March).

During their grant period, Fulbright Scholars in Europe have the opportunity to apply for a travel grant to support short-term (up to one week) travel to other countries in the EUR region for activities such as lectures, workshops, graduate or faculty seminars, master classes or recitals, curricular advising or panel presentations. Though scholars may pursue invitations for short-term activities in other European countries once notified that they have been selected for a Fulbright grant, Scholars may only apply for the European inter-country travel grant funds when in the UK and during their Fulbright grant period.
