Flex Option
No

Discipline Type
Applications are sought in all disciplines

Special Features

Fulbright East Asia Pacific Regional Travel Program
Fulbright Scholars in the East Asia and Pacific (EAP) region have the opportunity to apply for funds to support short-term (3-14 days) travel to other countries in the EAP region for activities such as lectures, workshops, graduate or faculty seminars, master classes or recitals, curricular advising or panel presentations. EAP Regional Travel Program funding covers transportation only. Regional Travel Program activities/host sites should not be included in the initial Fulbright application. Scholars may pursue invitations for short-term activities in other EAP countries once notified that they have been selected for a Fulbright grant, and may only apply for travel program funds once they have actively started their Fulbright grant in their host country. Scholars on Flex grants are not eligible for the regional travel grant.

Degree Requirements
Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) not required

Additional Qualification Information
Applicants should have at least two years of teaching experience at U.S. universities and knowledge of university management. Teaching experience may include work at a community college, but teaching assistant work does not qualify.

Experience with local, regional or international scholarly publications preferred. Prior work experience in Cambodia or other developing countries is desirable but not required. Applicants residing in Cambodia are not eligible to apply.

Additional Language Requirement
All teaching will be in English; additional language proficiency is not required. Translation services may be provided by host institutions depending on availability.

For teaching/research applicants without Khmer or other applicable language proficiency, feasibility of conducting research in English must be demonstrated in the proposal. Completion of the language proficiency report(s) is optional.

Invitation Requirement
A letter of invitation is preferred.

Additional Comments

The U.S. Embassy in Phnom Penh will provide an in-country orientation.

The U.S. Embassy in Phnom Penh will assist scholars and dependent(s) with obtaining visas and provide information on housing.

Potential applicants interested in learning more about Cambodia may contact the Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Embassy in Phnom Penh via email.
