Award Activity

The Fulbright Scholar Postdoctoral Program is designed for young scholars who would like to conduct research in their academic field in Turkey. The aim of the program is to enable young scholars to conduct research in Turkey, taking advantage of the expertise of senior faculty members in their own fields, and to promote scientific interaction between the two countries.

In addition to being a prestigious academic exchange program, the Fulbright Program is designed to expand and strengthen relationships between the people of the United States and citizens of other nations and to promote international understanding and cooperation. To support this mission, Fulbright Scholars will be asked to give public talks, mentor students, and otherwise engage with the host community, in addition to their primary research activities.

Award Length

4.5 to 9 months

Award Dates

One-semester grants must begin in September 2022 or February 2023; two-semester grants must begin in September 2022.

Locations

Grantees can conduct their research projects at public or foundation universities, research centers, organizations or at any other relevant institutions. Their institutional affiliations are subject to the approval of the Turkish Fulbright Commission.

Flex Option

No

Discipline Type

Applications are sought in all disciplines

Areas of Interest

Applications are sought in all appropriate disciplines and their relevant sub-fields.

Special Features

The Turkish Fulbright Commission provides help and guidance to the grantees in finding housing. Grantees arrange their own housing and can always contact the American Programs Officer at the Turkish Fulbright Commission for advice. If housing is not provided by the host institution, the grantee will receive an allowance of up to $560/month. However, grantees based in Istanbul will receive an allowance of up to $585/month. Please note that the actual amount will vary according to the grantee's rental agreement.

Degree Requirements

Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) required

Additional Qualification Information

Postdocs are open to scholars who will have received a doctoral degree (Ph.D., J.D, M.D., Ed.D., etc.) within five years of the fellowship start date. Degree conferment before the start of the award is mandatory. Institutional affiliation in the U.S. is not required.

Additional Language Requirement

Turkish language proficiency commensurate with the project can be helpful, but it is not required.

Invitation Requirement

A letter of invitation is preferred.

Additional Comments

A letter of invitation is preferred, but not required. Candidates who do not have an affiliation will be assisted by the Turkish Fulbright Commission to arrange one. Candidates should express clear reasoning for pursuing their proposed project in Turkey. They should have well-developed plans for projects that encourage collaboration and learning with host country partners. Ideally, the candidate has plans to contribute academically, socially and culturally to complete their projects.
