UB’s Vision Statement: In the next five years, UB is dedicated to fostering Belize's development by producing graduates who are socially and ecologically responsible, analytical, self-confident, disciplined, ethical, entrepreneurial and skilled communicators who are committed to using these skills and values for Belize's enrichment. UB's goals are to meet national needs, to encourage sustainable development, to increase self-sustainability, to prepare Belize to meet global challenges and to foster an international student population.

The Calabash Caye Field Station is a basic and applied marine research station that provides sound scientific basis for the management of the Turneffe Atoll. Research is focused on sustainable fisheries and aquaculture, coral reefs, climate change, coastal ecosystems, invasive species, ocean research, and endangered marine species. In addition to research, there are various long-term monitoring programs that Fulbright scholars can contribute to during their stay. These include coral reef, mangrove and sea grass ecosystem monitoring, coral bleaching monitoring, coral spawning and monitoring of herbivores. For more information on Calabash Cay Field Station please email Leandra Rickets. Phone: +501-223-1000 ext. 438.
