Special Features

South and Central Asia Fulbright Regional Travel Grant
During their grant period, Fulbright Scholars in the South and Central Asia (SCA) region may apply for a regional travel grant to engage in a variety of activities at academic institutions or non-profit organizations in eligible SCA countries (India, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyz Republic, Nepal, Republic of the Maldives, Sri Lanka, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan). Activities that U.S Scholars may engage in include: faculty and student lectures, graduate or faculty seminars, conferences, curriculum development, public lectures, panel presentations, needs assessment, or some combination thereof. Scholars in the arts may be invited to give master classes or recitals, participate in exhibitions or workshops, or consult with cultural institutions. Activities may not include research. This grant will cover travel to and from the destination and lodging may be offered by the hosting institution. Scholars may only apply for this grant once in country on their Fulbright grant. As funds are limited, Scholars are limited to one such travel grant.

South and Central Asia Fulbright Midyear Conference
With funding provided by the United States Department of State’s Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, the U.S.-India Educational Foundation (the Fulbright Commission in India) invites eligible Fulbright Scholars in the South and Central Asia region to attend the annual South and Central Asia Fulbright Midyear Conference in India (usually held in February or March). The conference is an opportunity for current Fulbright U.S. Scholars who are on their Fulbright grants in the SCA region at the time of the conference to gather to discuss each other’s work and educational exchange issues and to invite suggestions for the future development and enhancement of the Fulbright Program. Financial assistance to attend the conference is provided as an additional Fulbright grant benefit.
Degree Requirements
Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) not required

Additional Qualification Information

Terminal degree and five years of teaching experience preferred, but not required depending on area of expertise and research.

Additional Language Requirement

All teaching will be in English. Additional language proficiency is not required.

Invitation Requirement

A letter of invitation is required

Additional Comments

Housing in Maldives can be a challenge to obtain due to shortage of apartments and high costs. The allowance paid by IIE/CIES is sufficient to find a suitable furnished apartment. Scholars are advised to start looking for an apartment as soon as they are awarded the grant.

Maldivian culture and laws are quite different from the United States, refer to U.S. Department of State travel information at for further details.

No

Grant Length Filter

Three to five months

Invitation Requirement Additional Information

For teaching and teaching/research projects: Applicants are encouraged to initiate contact with prospective hosts and local academics during the application process and discuss the parameters of the teaching/research they are proposing. Prior contact and communication between the applicant and the host ensure greater buy-in by the host and create a more wholesome professional space that enables the grantee to function effectively once in country. Invitation letter is required.

For professional projects, the U.S. Embassy in Colombo will assist with affiliation arrangements. No invitation letter should be sought.
