Fulbright-Kathryn and Craig Hall Distinguished Chair for Entrepreneurship in Central Europe at WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business)

Award Autogenerated Code
9897-AU
Region
Europe and Eurasia
Country
Austria
Number of Grants
1
Stipend
$10,000 per month for four months. Host institution will provide a housing stipend or housing on-site. Additional support for grant-related lecturing at other institutions in the region may be available.

Estimated Travel and Relocation Allowance
All grantees receive a Fulbright travel grant of €1,000 (approx. $1,100 exchange rates may fluctuate).

Candidate Profile
Distinguished Chair
Professionals
Academics, except early career
Activity
Teaching/Research
Application Deadline
Tuesday, September 15, 2020
Grant Activity
A flexible combination of teaching and research at the WU that entails teaching two courses (classes meet once a week for 90 minutes) and one course as a guest lecturer at another university in Central Europe affiliated with the host institution in the scholar’s area of expertise. Format, content, and level (advanced undergraduate and graduate) of the individual courses are negotiated with the host institutions.

Grant Length
Four months
Grant Dates
Grant should begin on either October 1, 2021 or March 1, 2022.

Locations
WU (Vienna University of Economics and Business) and a partner institution in Central Europe (to be determined by WU). WU will facilitate contacts between the grantee and the other partner institution in Central Europe and monitor logistics as well as administrative processes. However, it will be the grantee’s responsibility to articulate course details and travel plans in close collaboration with WU as well as the partner institution in Central Europe.

For more information about Vienna, click here [1].

Flex Option
No
Discipline Type

Only applications in the following disciplines will be considered

Disciplines

Business
Economics
Public Administration

Areas of Interest

This award is designed to address a broad range of issues associated with entrepreneurship in its various forms, including but not limited to entrepreneurial strategies, start-ups, marketing, private-public partnerships, social entrepreneurship, and enhancing institutional frameworks for the facilitation of entrepreneurship. Projects relating to diversity, access, equity, inclusion and/or social justice are particularly encouraged. Among others, possible topics include women’s entrepreneurship, minority-owned enterprises, economics of race or gender, business and women and/or minorities, and urban economics.

Social entrepreneurship
Women’s entrepreneurship
Minority-owned enterprise
Small business enterprise
Business and women and/or minorities
Economics of gender, race, and/or the disadvantaged
Urban economics and/or economics of the inner city
Management and marketing
Specialized merchandizing and sales
Private-public partnership
Entrepreneurial and small-business operations

Comments: The WU has a special but by no means exclusive interest in entrepreneurial culture and strategies, including user integration and innovation management as well as corporate social responsibility and diversity in organizations. The WU also has an Institute for Gender and Diversity in Organizations; visit their website [2] for more information. WU is committed to diversity and inclusion.

Special Features

The WU has a broad network of universities in Central and Eastern Europe with which it cooperates. The WU would welcome having applicants play an active role in seeking out destinations in the region as potential sites. Additional funds for lecturing in Central Europe may be available.

Degree Requirements

Ph.D. (or other terminal degree) required

Additional Qualification Information

Open to associate and full professors.

Additional Language Requirement

Instruction is in English. If German proficiency is required to complete the proposed research project, competency thereof must be documented in the project proposal.

Invitation Requirement

A letter of invitation is optional

Additional Comments

WU has a special but by no means exclusive interest in entrepreneurial culture and strategies, including user integration and innovation management. Candidates should outline their teaching and research interests and agendas in their proposals. Affiliation for candidates with appropriate departments is arranged by host institution.

Additional funds for guest lecturing elsewhere in Central Europe are available.

For information on the host institution and department, consult the website [3].

This award is generously funded by the Kathryn and Craig Hall Foundation.
Helpful Links

Vienna University of Economics and Business, Institute for Entrepreneurship and Innovation

Please contact Clemens Rogi, International Affairs, (clemens.rogi@wu.ac.at) if you have questions about WU Vienna and its academic programs.

Multi-Country/Area Award
No

Grant Length Filter
Three to five months

Award Code
11139-AU

Award Year
2021-2022 Awards

Language Proficiency Requirements
None, English is sufficient. However, feasibility of conducting the project must be demonstrated in the project statement

Source URL: https://awards.cies.org/content/fulbright-kathryn-and-craig-hall-distinguished-chair-entrepreneurship-central-europe-wu-2

Links
[1] https://www.austria.info/uk/where-to-go/cities/vienna
[5] mailto:clemens.rogi@wu.ac.at