Grant Activity

Teach at the undergraduate or graduate level courses in the field of Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) or applied linguistics. Applicants should suggest courses for consideration in their proposal and be in touch with the university where they intend to teach. The typical Algerian university class is generally two hours long, meets once per week, and is comprised of an average of 60-150 students per class. Applicants should expect to teach six to ten hours per week. Activities and courses will be finalized in consultation with the U.S. Embassy and host institution. Algeria can be a very rewarding teaching experience for motivated, flexible, and adventurous scholars.

Grant Length

Based on the academic semester(s)

Grant Dates

Grants typically begin in early October 2021. If possible, grantees are encouraged to arrive mid-September to participate in the in-country orientation, finalize lodging arrangements and settle-in, and prepare for the academic year.

Teaching grants must correspond with the length of the Algerian academic semester. Applicants proposing to teach two full semesters must apply for a 10-month grant in order to match the length of the Algerian academic year and fulfill their responsibilities.

Locations

Applicants may affiliate with one of the following institutions:
