Grant Activity

The role will assist with research, writing, cataloguing, digitization and data management relating to artworks in the IMMA Collection by key Irish and International artists, to enhance IMMA's digital footprint as a place of knowledge and as part of a major initiative that will focus on Collection-centred programming in 2021 and 2022.

The placement will offer the successful candidate some time to immerse in IMMA's International Residency Programme where participants can develop a deeper focus in to specific areas of interest. IMMA offers successful scholars an exceptional opportunity: they live and work onsite amongst a community of artists with academics and researchers exploring, complementing and critiquing the museum in various capacities.
