Discipline Type
Only applications in the following disciplines will be considered
Areas of Interest

The Faculty of Cultural and Social Sciences of the University of Salzburg is interested in interdisciplinary approaches and seeks applications from researchers in Central / East-Central European History with a specialization in the research field of Habsburg Studies. We especially encourage applications from researchers focusing on questions of national identity, ethnic and confessional minorities and multinational statehood. A focus on historical themes or topics that are of continuing relevance to contemporary society may be beneficial. The successful candidate will have a profile complementary to those of current faculty. More information about current faculty can be found here [3].
